Peter Bennett Award Call for Nominations

MISA/ASIM Canada, Peter Bennett Award

A municipal information technology leader(s) may receive this award each year from MISA/ASIM CANADA as outlined in this call for nominations. The award may not necessarily be given in any particular year should there not be a worthy recipient in the opinion of the MISA/ASIM Canada Board of Directors.

Peter Bennett Award recipients to-date are: Peter Bennett (honoured posthumously 2006), Debbie Barrett (2006), Per Kristensen (2007), Roy Wiseman (2008), Gerry Matte (2009), Harry Turnbull (2010), and Gaston Hout (2011).

Nomination Process

Nominations must include the name, position, and contact information of the person making the nomination as well as a minimum of two (2) other people who support the nomination. The nomination process will include a summary, no more than two (2) pages in length, and should include documentation of the achievements of the nominated IT leader and her/his contribution to the municipal IT community.

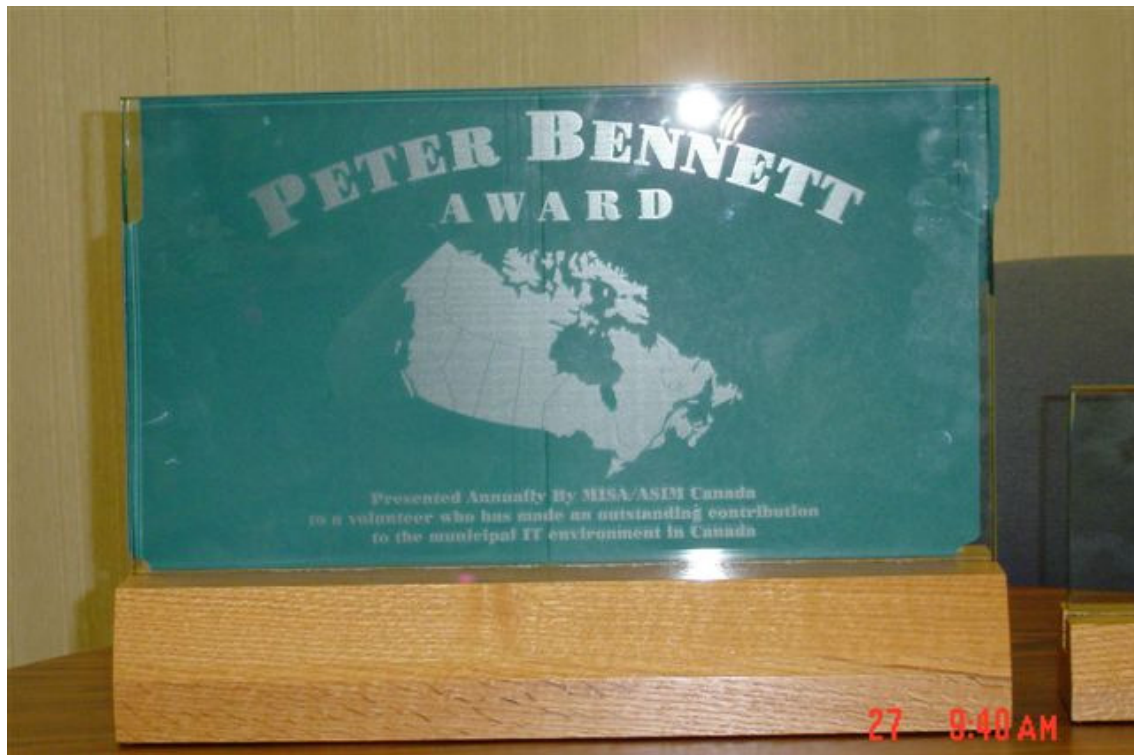

Nominations must be forwarded electronically in confidence to Chair, Nominating Committee, MISA/ASIM Canada by March 23, 2012. E-mail: kbulko@toronto.ca. Include '2012 Peter Bennett Award' in the subject line of your email.

The Selection Panel will be the Board of Directors of MISA/ASIM Canada or a Committee designated by the Board. The 2012 Peter Bennett Award recipient will be announced at the 2012 MISA/ASIM Canada MCIOC Summit in Hamilton, Ontario on May 31, 2012 and presented at the recipient's 2012 MISA Chapter Annual Conference.

Peter Bennett Award Description

The Peter Bennett Award is awarded for individual service making an outstanding contribution to the Canadian municipal IT Community and to the MISA/ASIM Canada Mission and Objectives, while exemplifying Peter Bennett's spirit of demonstrated leadership and working "beyond the call" with humour and humanity.
